Howard Bailey, the St. Louis mule dealer, was in Auxvasse Friday and Saturday and succeeded in buying nine head of big mules from the following parties: Four from John W. Bailey at $1,100; two from Ed Brett at $400, and one of H. F. Henderson at $190.

These mules were delivered in McCord Monday and shipped to St. Louis the same day with a two car load shipment. Good judges say it was one of the best pens of big mules ever shipped from that station—Auxvasse Review.

The Model Grocerteria

You have found it. This is the add you were looking for. Do you know we sent circulars all over the county last week which caused us to have such a volume of business that we are going to continue the same prices this week.

The Model Grocerteria has always sold groceries cheaper than others, so much cheaper in fact that it was rumored owing to its small profits that the Model Grocerteria was becoming embarrassed. Well we admit that we were on a rough sea, but dear people, it was not your fault. It was not the fault of small profit; nor was it the fault of small business for with your patronage and loyalty to us our bank showed that our last year's business amounted to over $128,000.00. It was our fault, we did not know the system, but now we do. We are systematized in our buying and selling departments. We know where and when to buy and believe the Grocerteria man when he tells you that if you are intending to save money in groceries you must come to the Model Grocerteria. Our force is willing to work hard and are willing to handle goods at a small margin if you will only give them encouragement. If these prices are right give us your business.

Caruso Is Dead

---but his voice will live forever

As you read of Caruso's death in today's dispatch, you realize what a wonderful thing Victrola has done for the human race and for future generations.

Jenny Lind, Patti, Paganini, all great musicians of days past, are forever dead. Nothing remains but fading memory, or tradition.

Caruso's body is dead, but his voice, never.

What an inspiring achievement of Victrola!

Engraved on an indestructible plate, capable of being duplicated indefinitely, Caruso's songs will live as pure and noble as in the living voice, and the greatest tenor of the next century will be able to compare his own voice with the greatest of this age.

Victrola is able to offer you a reproduction of the world famous tenor's voice with a fidelity that is unequalled.
